

Class 3

In history, Class 3 have been studying the Stone Age.

The children looked at cave art paintings from this time.

They then designed their own hand art in the same style.

The children used pastels and coloured pencils to create the same colours as seen in the original cave art paintings.

